ATTACK ANTI-TRUST STATUTE

Attorneys for Indicted Beef Trust Officials Spring Surprise on Government Lawyers by Plan to Attack Legality of Sherman Law—Case Goes to Supreme Court Without Cost or Delay of Criminal Trial.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The indicted Chicago meat packers, by precipitating a federal court decision on the constitutionality of the Sherman anti-trust law, when they surrendered themselves into custody and asked for a writ of habeas corpus, merely took steps necessary to carry the fight before the United States supreme court without the cost or delay of a trial, it was announced.

Government attorneys, taken unawares, were cut off from much of the results of their long investigation into the meat packing industry by the sudden move of the packers. Instead of a promise to be supported by evidence carefully brought together the fight, for a time at least, must be conducted purely as an argument of law, consequently the fight will not be a question of first issue as to the guilt or innocence of the packers, but a plain attack on the validity of the Sherman act, according to attorneys for the packers. They explain their position briefly in this wise:

The supreme court in the tobacco and oil cases converted the Sherman law into an illegal enactment, since the court, by placing each individual or corporation on a standard of its own built up on its peculiar individual acts, took away from all individuals the possibility of knowing how their acts were to be viewed by a jury, "in the light of reason, that this obscuring of definition of what constituted crime was contrary to the eighth amendment to the federal Constitution."

Trial May Be Postponed.

In short, the petition, say the attorneys, charges the supreme court interpretation with nullifying the Sherman law, in spite of the court's action in ordering the dissolution of the American Tobacco company and the Standard Oil company. Only an adverse decision to the packers' contention by the United States supreme court will give the government attorneys an opportunity to use the material they have gathered for the prosecution. In the meantime the trial, scheduled for Monday of next week, undoubtedly will be postponed, pending the decision of the higher court on the new question.

The move made by the packers was a complete surprise to the government and consisted in the surrender of the packers to the United States marshal and an immediate appeal to United States Circuit Judge C. C. Kohlsaat for a writ of habeas corpus. The arguments will be heard Thursday.

Violations of the fifth, sixth and eighth amendments to the United States Constitution, ambiguity and its alleged failure either to create an offense against the government or so to define what it set up as an offense in a manner that would enable the citizen to know when he erred and when not were charged against the Sherman law as interpreted by the United States supreme court in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases.

Attorney John S. Miller, who as chief of counsel for the packers conducted the court move, characterized the Sherman law as follows: "Not large enough to catch all possible offenders it leaves to the courts to step in and say who rightfully can be detained and who set at large."

MISSOURI OUSTS BIG TRUST

Fines International Harvester $50,000 for Violating Law.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 15.—The supreme court of the state of Missouri issued a writ of order against the International Harvester company and assessed a fine of $50,000 for violation of the anti-trust law. The International Harvester company, in September, 1910, was found guilty of violating the Missouri anti-trust laws by a commissioner appointed by the state supreme court. The case was submitted to the supreme court for affirmation last April. The effect of the decision is to prevent all the companies which make up the International company from conducting further business in the state.

LIABILITY LAW STANDS TEST

Wisconsin Supreme Court Affirms Compensation Statute.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 15.—The Wisconsin supreme court has sustained the constitutionality of the workmen's compensation law enacted at the last session of the legislature. The law provides for the insurance of workmen employed by corporations against injury. In case of injury damages are to be fixed by a state commission. It is not obligatory on the part of the corporation to come under the law and those not doing so may appeal to the courts for adjustment of injury cases.

NEARING AN ENDRebel Leader Will Treat for Peace on Certain Terms.

OPTIMISM RULES AT PEKING

Imperial Government Promptly Issues Edict Commanding Yuan Shi Kai to Accept Premiership and Ordering Viceroy and Governors of Provinces to Select Representatives to Come to Peking and Consult Concerning State of Affairs.

Peking, Nov. 15.—Optimism was the prevailing note in government circles. This feeling was caused by the report that Prince Ching, the acting premier, had received a telegram from General Li Yuan Heng, commander of the rebel forces, saying he was prepared to treat for peace on certain terms, and by the statement that army divisions 1 to 6 would agree to uphold the monarchical constitution and support Yuan Shi Kai, provided the rebel leader's terms agreed with those of the army.

The imperial government promptly issued an edict commanding Yuan Shi Kai to accept the premiership for the country's welfare and ordering the viceroys and governors of all the provinces to select three or five able representatives who shall come to Peking and consult concerning the state of affairs.

The edict also appoints delegates to visit the sixteen disturbed provinces to pacify the people and announces that the throne donates one tael to each of the soldiers and police of Peking, presumably in the hope of purchasing their loyalty. The government expresses the opinion that the edict will go far toward restoring peace.

The president of the Ta Ching government bank deserted his post and fled from the city. The vice president, Chang Chin Tao, who was recently in Europe in connection with a currency loan, is endeavoring to conduct the wrecked institution. As the provinces secede the various branches of this government bank have been confiscated. At only one or two treaty ports the deposits saved by hasty transfer to foreign banks.

Financial stress is being felt by the administration. The board of finance has only $300,000, while the late emperor's hoarded silver and gold is not thought to amount to more than $3,000,000, the palace, it is said, having contributed largely to famine funds and other charities, as well as for the Hankow and other campaigns.

NEW INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC

State Department Notified by Consul of Its Formation.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Another independent republic has been set up in China, according to American Consul Fowler at Chefoo, who reported to the state department that the former governor of the province of Shantung, Sun Hao Cho, had been selected as head of the republic of Shantung, which yielded to the revolutionists without a struggle.

MAINE EXPLOSION EXTERNAL

Hull Plate Found Under Magazines Shows Outward Pressure.

Havana, Nov. 15.—Exploration of the bottom of the Maine about 150 feet aft of the bow revealed a plate, identified as forming a portion of the outer hull of the ship on the port side near the keel and under the magazines, as having been blown inward, the upper part being folded inward. This apparently could result only from external pressure.

The engineer in charge and the other officers are maintaining reticence, but the discovery is strongly confirmatory of the theory of an external explosion.

One body was recovered from the boiler room.

WILL ENTER CANAL EARLY

Vessels May Be Allowed to Pass Through Panama in 1913.

New Orleans, Nov. 15.—Vessels will be allowed to pass through the Panama canal before the official date of the opening, Jan. 1, 1915. This information is contained in a letter received by L. E. Bentley, chairman of the progressive union's committee on immigration, steamship and rail service, from Major F. C. Boggs of the United States corps of engineers at Washington.

Major Boggs says present indications are that vessels may pass through during the latter half of 1913, although it is too far in advance at this time to fix any definite date.

Both Parties Win in New Mexico.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 15.—Complete unofficial returns from all counties in the state show the plurality of W. C. McDonald, Democrat, for governor is 3,258. The same returns show the Republicans will easily control both houses of the legislature and elect two senators.

COST OF LIVING PROBLEM

President May Send Special Message to Congress.

Washington, Nov. 15.—President Taft is planning to take up the high cost of living in a special message to congress when he transmits the report of the tariff board's investigation of the wool and cotton schedules.

It is also said the president will vigorously renew his recommendations for a parcels post.

The tariff board's findings will show, it is declared, that much of the high cost of living is due to the middleman rather than the tariff.

PRESIDENT OPPOSES
AMENDING STATUTEFavors Federal Charters for Great Corporations.

Washington, Nov. 15.—President Taft is not inclined to approve any amendments to the Sherman anti-trust law unless it becomes apparent that congress will not pass a federal incorporation act. The president indicated this.

Mr. Taft made it plain that he preferred to see the changes in the regulation of commerce accomplished through federal charters, which could provide certain defined limitations for corporations. He let it be known that should that prove impossible he would endorse amendments to the Sherman law, pointing out specifically what big business may not do.

The president believes that if the Sherman law be amended it should define specifically what constitutes offenses against it. Crushing of competition, combination to ruin competitors, to raise prices or other acts of the kind should be specifically named, in his opinion.

President Taft also believes that the amendments, if made, should be framed so as to make it unnecessary for the government to prove that a combination which has come to operate in restraint of trade originally was intended for that purpose, as is now the case. As in the Standard Oil suit the department of justice had to begin with the company's record more than thirty years ago and work down to date to prove that the combinations were intended to crush competition.

NORTHROP DECLINES HONOR

Former University President Will Not Enter Politics.

Minneapolis, Nov. 15.—Dr. Cyrus Northrop will not permit the use of his name for political honors. In a statement given out he announced his definite decision not to be a candidate, either for governor or for congressman at large from Minnesota. The statement, beyond which he would say nothing, follows:

"I am very greatly obliged to all the friends who have given me advice on the subject of my being a candidate for congressman at large or for governor and I thank them all, whether their advice has been for or against my being a candidate; but I have decided the matter and shall not be a candidate for either position."

CHILDREN GOOD AS CALVES

Federal Commissioner of Education Urges School Hygiene.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Is not the health of the 20,000,000 children in the United States as important as the live stock of the country? United States Commissioner of Education Claxton puts the query in his annual report to Secretary of the Interior Fisher, at the same time recommending the appointment of a specialist in school hygiene and sanitation, with assistants and clerks.

Dr. Claxton declares his bureau should have more opportunity to study the needs of rural schools. Industrial education, he contends, also should be studied by a group of competent field specialists and assistants.

TAFT INSISTS
ON ECONOMY.Curtailement In All but the Army and Navy.

WILL REVENUES BE REDUCED?

Continued Appropriations For Fortifying Panama Canal—Prohibition the Chief Question in Texas—When Roosevelt Was Nominated For Vice President—The Colonel as an Editor.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 15.—[Special.]—Economy is not to be lost in the congressional program of the administration. Every effort to curtail the estimates is being made, and President Taft is not going to allow any extravagant save on those matters on which he likes to spend money, the army and the navy. It has already become evident that while economies are to be practiced in every other possible direction the president would like to have the army increased and will ask for two battleships as the regular program for the navy.

More than this, he may ask for increased rank for commanding officers and for more officers and to continue the appropriations for fortifying the Panama canal. But there are to be savings in other directions. Already the postoffice deficit, of which there was so much talk and for which few cared anything, has disappeared, and there is now on foot a proposition to make the postoffice a revenue producer or to reduce letter postage.

And the Revenues.

As to whether it is proposed to follow a reduction of the government expenses with a reduction of the revenues has not yet been determined. Up to the present time there has not been any such surplus of revenue as to indicate the necessity of a reduction.

In all probability the revenue legislation which will be proposed will not have much reference to raising money, but to the reduction of duties along certain lines. While the question of revenue is always put forward in all tariff bills, it is apparent that protection or non-protection governs the rates of duty.

Prohibition the Issue.

Congressman John Garner stopped in Washington for a few days on his way from Texas to Panama. "Prohibition is the only issue in Texas," he said. "A man may be for or against anything else that comes along, but he has got to take one side or the other of the prohibition question if he remains in politics in Texas. That is all they are talking about."

It may be that they do have something to say about the Democratic candidate for president, and at present it looks as if Governor Wilson had the call, but the election of a president is a side show. The real circus is in the prohibition tent."

Bliss and the Vice Presidency.

If my memory is correct the late Cornelius Bliss of New York is the fifth man that might have been president if he had been willing to accept the vice presidency with McKinley in 1900. One of the others was Dooliver, and another was Elkins.

There never was a time when any of them could have been nominated for vice president and Bliss least of all. Hanna wanted to name Bliss, but Platt stood in the way. The New York boss never would consent to nominate Bliss, and Hanna could not have named him with Platt and Quay both in the way.

Dooliver flirted with the nomination for a time, but Hanna would not consent to Dooliver because of personal differences. Hanna pleaded with McKinley to allow the use of the power of the administration to defeat Roosevelt, but McKinley would not consent. And the rest is history.

Little Boost For Hilles.

No one seems to have heard that Secretary Hilles accompanied President Taft on his recent western trip except Seth Bullock, Roosevelt's old friend in South Dakota. Mingled with his praise of Taft—Bullock is still United States marshal—are good words for Secretary Hilles, uttered by the famous South Dakota ranger. Perhaps Hilles mowed and rode a bucking broncho in cowboy land and thus came under the notice of Seth.

Follow the Birds.

Army aviators, like the other birds, go south for the winter. Unlike the other birds, they go in Pullman cars, with their flying machines in the express cars. In few other respects do they resemble the birds. Aviation may be improved until it becomes a successful means of warfare or defense, but the wars will have to be fought in warm weather. It is cold enough in hot weather to fly high. It is impossible to fly at all in cold weather.

In a Negative Mood.

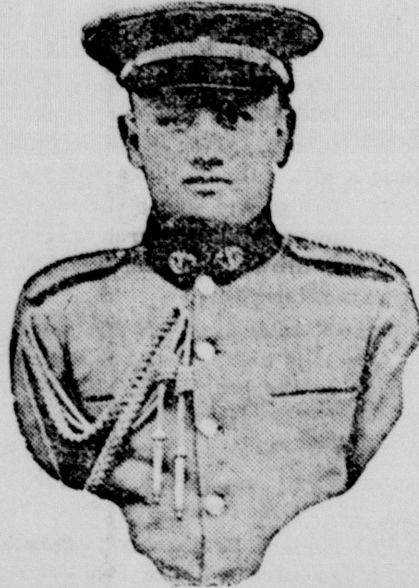

"I saw your friend T. R. in his office over in New York the other day," said a man who mingles in politics. "He was very much as he was in the White House, only he was in one of those negative moods. About a dozen people came in and asked him to do something. He turned them all down. 'I told him I was glad I didn't have anything to ask him, for he seemed determined to deny everything and everybody. They wanted Roosevelt to write, to talk or to help in one thing or another, and not one landed him.'"

TALKS PLAINLY TO WOMEN

Mayor Gaynor Says Hasty Reformers Are Great Nuisance.

New York, Nov. 15.—Mayor Gaynor welcomed to New York 100 members of the State Federation of Women's clubs at their seventeenth convention and chided them upon too great haste in working for reforms and changes notably woman suffrage. He told them that he opposed woman suffrage but conceded that they would get the ballot when they wanted it.

"The reformers today, men and women, who go around noisily declaiming against everybody and everything," he said, "are more of a nuisance than anything else, to my way of thinking. Those who want to accomplish something do it with patience, care, charity and gentleness; a little here and a little there."

WORRIES POSTAL SAVINGS TRUSTEESLow Price Received for the Sale of Bonds.

Washington, Nov. 15.—As the result of the first sale of postal savings bonds in New York recently at the low rate of 92.5 the trustees of the postal savings banks, to maintain the securities at their face value, will announce their willingness shortly, it is expected, to invest in these bonds at par the 30 per cent of postal savings deposits which the law places at their disposal for investment. "In bonds or other securities of the United States." This, it is pointed out, would virtually insure 100 cents on the dollar to the holders of these bonds.

The low price for which the first bond was sold created surprise. If 92.5 could be accepted as a criterion of the market value of the investment the trustees believed the success of the postal savings system would in large measure be placed in jeopardy. While the bonds are as good as gold at maturity it could be hardly expected, it is said, that there would be any extensive investment in them if there were a probability that, in case a holder had to surrender them before the expiration of twenty years, he would lose 7 1/2 per cent of his principal.

If the 30 per cent at the disposal of the trustees should be insufficient at any time to maintain the parity of outstanding bonds it is pointed out that the law authorizes the president to direct the withdrawal of 65 per cent, or all but 5 per cent of the remainder, for investment in bonds or other securities of the United States when in his judgment the general welfare and interests of the United States might so require.

CHANGE INAUGURATION DAY

Determined Effort Will Be Made in Sixty-second Congress.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Determined efforts to amend the Constitution so as to change the date of the inauguration of the president and vice president of the United States from March 4 to the last Thursday in April and alter the official term of the session of congress are to be features of the work of the Sixty-second congress, which assembles in regular session next month.

A joint resolution introduced last summer in the house by Representative Henry of Texas and in the senate by Senator Clark of Wyoming will be taken up by the house committee on judiciary soon after congress convenes.

Besides changing the date of the inauguration the resolution provides for elimination of the short session of congress, fixing the second Tuesday of January as the date of the commencement and termination of the official term of senators and representatives.

The school will teach the science of city government without laying particular stress on the propaganda of Socialism.

Rumor Says They Want Roosevelt

HERRICK MAKES STATEMENT

Former Governor of Ohio Reported to

Have Declared La Follette Movement Has Gone Far Enough in Ohio and That It Must Be Stopped—Wisconsin Man's Friends Believe Money Power is Looking for Some Other Candidate Than Taft.

Washington, Nov. 15.—A remarkable story that powerful financial interests in the East are planning an attempt to force Theodore Roosevelt as the next presidential nominee of the Republican party instead of either Taft or La Follette came to the ears of the La Follette managers here.

On the authority of John D. Fackler of Cleveland, a leader in the anti-Taft fight in Ohio, it is stated that former Governor Herrick of that state has declared that the La Follette movement has gone far enough in Ohio; that it must be stopped; and that efforts are to be made to name Roosevelt. Herrick is said to have made this declaration in pulling off one of his friends who was about to join in the progressive movement in Cleveland. Mr. Herrick is a financier whose alliance with men powerful in the financial world are well known.

The men who are leading the La Follette movement here are doing an astonishing amount of work in the effort to get Ohio delegates away from President Taft and declare that Taft will not get half of the Buckeye state delegates.

They believe the progressive work done in Ohio has turned the attention of powerful financial interests to the necessity of heading off La Follette and that the only man who can do this is Roosevelt.

The La Follette leaders, however, do not believe Roosevelt will let himself be dragged into the situation, but they say they are convinced that President Taft has been deserted by the great financial interests who are now casting about for some one else.

President to Delay Selecting Marlan's and Grosscup's Successors.

Washington, Nov. 15.—President Taft will wait until Jan. 1 before naming a successor to Associate Justice Marlan on the supreme court bench. Three or four other judicial nominations will be made at the same time, including a successor to Circuit Judge Grosscup of Chicago, who resigned recently.

The president has received a request from Missouri lawyers asking that he choose his next appointee from that state, as Missouri, in ninety-one years of statehood, has never had a representative on the supreme bench. Similar requests from Indiana are being received.

Santa Anna, Cal., Nov. 15.—United States Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan claims the unique distinction of being the only member of congress whose mother is a qualified voter. PACKERS MAKE SUDDEN MOVE

Surrender Into Custody and Ask Writ of Habeas Corpus.

ATTACK ANTI-TRUST STATUTE

Attorneys for Indicted Beef Trust Officials Spring Surprise on Government Lawyers by Plan to Attack Legality of Sherman Law—Case Goes to Supreme Court Without Cost or Delay of Criminal Trial.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The indicted Chicago meat packers, by precipitating a federal court decision on the constitutionality of the Sherman anti-trust law, when they surrendered themselves into custody and asked for a writ of habeas corpus, merely took steps necessary to carry the fight before the United States supreme court without the cost or delay of a trial, it was announced.

Government attorneys, taken unawares, were cut off from much of the results of their long investigation into the meat packing industry by the sudden move of the packers. Instead of a promise to be supported by evidence carefully brought together the fight, for a time at least, must be conducted purely as an argument of law, consequently the fight will not be a question of first issue as to the guilt or innocence of the packers, but a plain attack on the validity of the Sherman act, according to attorneys for the packers. They explain their position briefly in this wise:

The supreme court in the tobacco and oil cases converted the Sherman law into an illegal enactment, since the court, by placing each individual or corporation on a standard of its own built up on its peculiar individual acts, took away from all individuals the possibility of knowing how their acts were to be viewed by a jury, "in the light of reason, that this obscuring of definition of what constituted crime was contrary to the eighth amendment to the federal Constitution."

Trial May Be Postponed. In short, the petition, say the attorneys, charges the supreme court interpretation with nullifying the Sherman law, in spite of the court's action in ordering the dissolution of the American Tobacco company and the Standard Oil company. Only an adverse decision to the packers' contention by the United States supreme court will give the government attorneys an opportunity to use the material they have gathered for the prosecution. In the meantime the trial, scheduled for Monday of next week, undoubtedly will be postponed, pending the decision of the higher court on the new question.

The move made by the packers was a complete surprise to the government and consisted in the surrender of the packers to the United States marshal and an immediate appeal to United States Circuit Judge C. C. Kohlstaet for a writ of habeas corpus. The arguments will be heard Thursday.

Violations of the fifth, sixth and eighth amendments to the United States Constitution, ambiguity and its alleged failure either to create an offense against the government or so to define what it set up as an offense in a manner that would enable the citizen to know when he erred and when not were charged against the Sherman law as interpreted by the United States supreme court in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases.

Attorney John S. Miller, who as chief of counsel for the packers conducted the court move, characterized the Sherman law as follows: "Not large enough to catch all possible offenders it leaves to the courts to step in and say who rightfully can be detained and who set at large."

MISSOURI OUSTS BIG TRUST

Fines International Harvester $50,000 for Violating Law.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 15.—The supreme court of the state of Missouri issued a writ of ouster against the International Harvester company and assessed a fine of $50,000 for violation of the anti-trust law. The International Harvester company, in September, 1910, was found guilty of violating the Missouri anti-trust laws by a commissioner appointed by the state supreme court. The case was submitted to the supreme court for affirmation last April. The effect of the decision is to prevent all the companies which make up the International company from conducting further business in the state.

LIABILITY LAW STANDS TEST

Wisconsin Supreme Court Affirms Compensation Statute.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 15.—The Wisconsin supreme court has sustained the constitutionality of the workmen's compensation law enacted at the last session of the legislature.

The law provides for the insurance of workmen employed by corporations against injury. In case of injury damages are to be fixed by a state commission. It is not obligatory on the part of the corporation to come under the law and those not doing so, may appeal to the courts for adjustment of injury cases.

CHINESE REVOLT NEARING AN END

Rebel Leader Will Treat for Peace on Certain Terms.

OPTIMISM RULES AT PEKING

Imperial Government Promptly Issues Edict Commanding Yuan Shi Kai to Accept Premiership and Ordering Viceroy and Governors of Provinces to Select Representatives to Come to Peking and Consult Concerning State of Affairs.

Peking, Nov. 15.—Optimism was the prevailing note in government circles. This feeling was caused by the report that Prince Ching, the acting premier, had received a telegram from General Li Yuan Heng, commander of the rebel forces, saying he was prepared to treat for peace on certain terms, and by the statement that army divisions 1 to 6 would agree to uphold the monarchical constitution and support Yuan Shi Kai, provided the rebel leader's terms agreed with those of the army.

The imperial government promptly issued an edict commanding Yuan Shi Kai to accept the premiership for the country's welfare and ordering the viceroys and governors of all the provinces to select three or five able representatives who shall come to Peking and consult concerning the state of affairs.

The edict also appoints delegates to visit the sixteen disturbed provinces to pacify the people and announce that the throne donates one tal to each of the soldiers and police of Peking, presumably in the hope of purchasing their loyalty. The government expresses the opinion that the edict will go far toward restoring peace.

The president of the Ta Ching government bank deserted his post and fled from the city. The vice president, Chang Chin Tao, who was recently in Europe in connection with a currency loan, is endeavoring to conduct the wrecked institution. As the provinces secede the various branches of this government bank have been confiscated. At only one or two treaty ports were the deposits saved by hasty transfer to foreign banks.

Financial stress is being felt by the administration. The board of finance has only $300,000, while the late emperor's hoarded silver and gold is not thought to amount to more than $3,000,000, the palace, it is said, having contributed largely to famine funds and other charities, as well as for the Hankow and other campaigns.

NEW INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC

State Department Notified by Consul of Its Formation.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Another independent republic has been set up in China, according to American Consul Fowler at Chefoo, who reported to the state department that the former governor of the province of Shantung, Sun Hao Cho, had been selected as head of the republic of Shantung, which yielded to the revolutionists without a struggle.

MAINE EXPLOSION EXTERNAL

Hull Plate Found Under Magazines Shows Outward Pressure.

Havana, Nov. 15.—Exploration of the bottom of the Maine about 150 feet aft of the bow revealed a plate, identified as forming a portion of the outer hull of the ship on the port side near the keel and under the magazines, as having been blown inward, the upper part being folded inward. This apparently could result only from external pressure.

The engineer in charge and the other officers are maintaining reticence, but the discovery is strongly confirmatory of the theory of an external explosion.

One body was recovered from the boiler room.

WILL ENTER CANAL EARLY

Vessels May Be Allowed to Pass Through Panama in 1913.

New Orleans, Nov. 15.—Vessels will be allowed to pass through the Panama canal before the official date of the opening, Jan. 1, 1915. This information is contained in a letter received by L. E. Bentley, chairman of the progressive union's committee on immigration, steamship and rail service, from Major F. C. Boggs of the United States corps of engineers at Washington.

Major Boggs says present indications are that vessels may pass through during the latter half of 1913, although it is too far in advance at this time to fix any definite date.

Both Parties Win in New Mexico.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 15.—Complete unofficial returns from all counties in the state show the plurality of W. C. McDonald, Democrat, for governor, is 3,258. The same returns show the Republicans will easily control both houses of the legislature and elect two senators.

COST OF LIVING PROBLEM

President May Send Special Message to Congress.

Washington, Nov. 15.—President Taft is planning to take up the high cost of living in a special message to congress when he transmits the report of the tariff board's investigation of the wool and cotton schedules.

It is also said the president will vigorously renew his recommendations for a parcels post.

The tariff board's findings will show, it is declared, that much of the high cost of living is due to the middleman rather than the tariff.

PRESIDENT OPPOSES AMENDING STATUTE

Favors Federal Charters for Great Corporations.

Washington, Nov. 15.—President Taft is not inclined to approve any amendments to the Sherman anti-trust law unless it becomes apparent that congress will not pass a federal incorporation act. The president indicated this.

Mr. Taft made it plain that he preferred to see the changes in the regulation of commerce accomplished through federal charters, which could provide certain defined limitations for corporations. He let it be known that should that prove impossible he would endorse amendments to the Sherman law, pointing out specifically what big business may not do.

The president believes that if the Sherman law be amended it should define specifically what constitutes offenses against it. Crushing of competition, combination to ruin competitors, to raise prices or other acts of the kind should be specifically named, in his opinion.

President Taft also believes that the amendments, if made, should be framed so as to make it unnecessary for the government to prove that a combination which has come to operate in restraint of trade originally was intended for that purpose, as is now the case. As in the Standard Oil suit the department of justice had to begin with the company's record more than thirty years ago and work down to date to prove that the combinations were intended to crush competition.

NORTHROP DECLINES HONOR

Former University President Will Not Enter Politics.

Minneapolis, Nov. 15.—Dr. Cyrus Northrop will not permit the use of his name for political honors. In a statement given out he announced his definite decision not to be a candidate, either for governor or for congressman at large from Minnesota. The statement, beyond which he would say nothing, follows:

"I am very greatly obliged to all the friends who have given me advice on the subject of my being a candidate for congressman at large or for governor and I thank them all, whether their advice has been for or against my being a candidate; but I have decided the matter and shall not be a candidate for either position."

CHILDREN GOOD AS CALVES

Federal Commissioner of Education Urges School Hygiene.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Is not the health of the 20,000,000 children in the United States as important as the live stock of the country? United States Commissioner of Education Claxton puts the query in his annual report to Secretary of the Interior Fisher, at the same time recommending the appointment in the bureau of education of a specialist in school hygiene and sanitation, with assistants and clerks.

Dr. Claxton declares his bureau should have more opportunity to study the needs of rural schools. Industrial education, he contends, also should be studied by a group of competent field specialists and assistants.

TAFT INSISTS ON ECONOMY.

Curtailment in All but the Army and Navy.

WILL REVENUES BE REDUCED?

Continued Appropriations for Fortifying Panama Canal—Prohibition the Chief Question in Texas—When Roosevelt Was Nominated For Vice President—The Colonel as an Editor.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 15.—[Special.]—Economy is not to be lost in the congressional program of the administration. Every effort to curtail the estimates is being made, and President Taft is not going to allow any extravagance save on those matters on which he likes to spend money, the army and the navy. It has already become evident that while economies are to be practiced in every other possible direction the president would like to have the army increased and will ask for two battleships as the regular program for the navy.

More than this, he may ask for increased rank for commanding officers and for more officers and to continue the appropriations for fortifying the Panama canal. But there are to be savings in other directions. Already the postoffice deficit, of which there was so much talk and for which few cared anything, has disappeared, and there is now on foot a proposition to make the postoffice a revenue producer or to reduce letter postage.

And the Revenues.

As to whether it is proposed to follow a reduction of the government expenses with a reduction of the revenues has not yet been determined. Up to the present time there has not been any such surplus of revenue as to indicate the necessity of a reduction.

In all probability the revenue legislation which will be proposed will not have much reference to raising money, but to the reduction of duties along certain lines. While the question of revenue is always put forward in all tariff bills, it is apparent that protection or non-protection governs the rates of duty.

Prohibition the Issue. Congressman John Garner stopped in Washington for a few days on his way from Texas to Panama. "Prohibition is the only issue in Texas," he said. "A man may be for or against anything else that comes along, but he has got to take one side or the other of the prohibition question if he remains in politics in Texas. That is all they are talking about."

"It may be that they do have something to say about the Democratic candidate for president, and at present it looks as if Governor Wilson had the call, but the election of a president is a side show. The real circus is in the prohibition tent."

Bliss and the Vice Presidency. If my memory is correct the late Cornelius Bliss of New York is the fifth man that might have been president if he had been willing to accept the vice presidency with McKinley in 1900. One of the others was Dooliver, and another was Elkins.

There never was a time when any of them could have been nominated for vice president and Bliss least of all. Hanna wanted to name Bliss, but Platt stood in the way. The New York boss never would consent to nominate Bliss, and Hanna could not have named him with Platt and Quay both in the way.

Dooliver flitted with the nomination for a time, but Hanna would not consent to Dooliver because of personal differences. Hanna sided with McKinley to allow the use of the power of the administration to defeat Roosevelt, but McKinley would not consent. And the rest is history.

Little Boost For Hilles.

No one seems to have heard that Secretary Hilles accompanied President Taft on his recent western trip except Seth Bullock, Roosevelt's old friend in South Dakota. Mingled with his praise of Taft—Bullock is still United States marshal—are good words for Secretary Hilles, uttered by the famous South Dakota ranger. Perhaps Hilles mounted and rode a bucking broncho in cowboy land and thus came under the notice of Seth.

Follow the Birds.

Army aviators, like the other birds, go south for the winter. Unlike the other birds, they go in Pullman cars, with their flying machines in the express cars. In few other respects do they resemble the birds. Aviation may be improved until it becomes a successful means of warfare or defense, but the wars will have to be fought in warm weather. It is cold enough in hot weather to fly high. It is impossible to fly at all in cold weather.

In a Negative Mood.

"I saw your friend T. R. in his office over in New York the other day," said a man who mingles in politics. "He was very much as he was in the White House, only he was in one of those negative moods. About a dozen people came in and asked him to do something. He turned them all down. 'I told him I was glad I didn't have anything to ask him, for he seemed determined to deny everything and everybody. They wanted Roosevelt to write, to talk or to help in one thing or another, and not one landed him.'"

TALKS PLAINLY TO WOMEN

Mayor Gaynor Says Hasty Reformers Are Great Nuisance.

New York, Nov. 15.—Mayor Gaynor welcomed to New York 100 members of the State Federation of Women's clubs at their seventeenth convention and chided them upon too great haste in working for reforms and changes notably woman suffrage. He told them that he opposed woman suffrage but conceded that they would get the ballot when they wanted it.

"The reformers today, men and women, who go around noisily declaiming against everybody and everything," he said, "are more of a nuisance than anything else, to my way of thinking. Those who want to accomplish something do it with patience, care, charity and gentleness; a little here and a little there."

WORRIES POSTAL SAVINGS TRUSTEES

Low Price Received for the Sale of Bonds.

Washington, Nov. 15.—As the result of the first sale of postal savings bonds in New York recently at the low rate of 92 1/2 the trustees of the postal savings banks, to maintain the securities at their face value, will announce their willingness shortly, it is expected, to invest in these bonds at par the 30 per cent of postal savings deposits which the law places at their disposal for investment, "in bonds or other securities of the United States." This, it is pointed out, would virtually invest 100 cents on the dollar to the holders of these bonds.

The low price for which the first bond was sold created surprise. If 92 1/2 could be accepted as a criterion of the market value of the investment the trustees believed the success of the postal savings system would in large measure be placed in jeopardy. While the bonds are as good as gold at maturity it could be hardly expected, it is said, that there would be any extensive investment in them if there were a probability that, in case a holder had to surrender them before the expiration of twenty years, he would lose 7 1/2 per cent of his principal.

If the 30 per cent at the disposal of the trustees should be insufficient at any time to maintain the parity of outstanding bonds it is pointed out that the law authorizes the president to direct the withdrawal of 65 per cent, or all but 5 per cent of the remainder, for investment in bonds or other securities of the United States when in his judgment the general welfare and interests of the United States might so require.

CHANGE INAUGURATION DAY

Determined Effort Will Be Made in Sixty-second Congress.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Determined efforts to amend the Constitution so as to change the date of the inauguration of the president and vice president of the United States from March 4 to the last Thursday in April and alter the official term of the session of congress are to be features of the work of the Sixty-second congress, which assembles in regular session next month.

A joint resolution introduced last summer in the house by Representative Henry of Texas and in the senate by Senator Clark of Wyoming will be taken up by the house committee on judiciary soon after congress convenes.

Besides changing the date of the inauguration the resolution provides for elimination of the short session of congress, fixing the second Tuesday of January as the date of the commencement and termination of the official term of senators and representatives.

AGREEMENT TO BE SUBMITTED

Western Canadian Miners Expected to Resume Work Shortly.

Fernie, B. C., Nov. 15.—The delegates from the conference between the mine owners and unions have arrived in Fernie from Frank, but would make no statement beyond the fact that an agreement would be submitted to the local men on Thursday.

The general feeling is that the mines will be opened in a few days, as it is thought the miners will accept the terms offered by the operators.

The storm is still raging and there is fully three feet of snow on the level. There is considerable suffering in the town already owing to the shortage of coal and unless the strike is soon settled the situation will be serious.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 15.—"International insurGENCY against aristocratic, governmental and judicial tyranny" is the way James Duncan, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, described "a craving for better conditions and for freedom that is permeating all movements of the middle class," before the organization.

This expression came from Mr. Duncan when describing labor conditions in Europe, on which he spoke for two hours.

Rumor Says They Want Roosevelt in White House.

HERRICK MAKES STATEMENT

Former Governor of Ohio Reported to Have Declared La Follette Move-ment Has Gone Far Enough in Ohio and That It Must Be Stopped—Wisconsin Man's Friends Believe Money Power is Looking for Some Other Candidate Than Taft.

Washington, Nov. 15.—A remarkable story that powerful financial interests in the East are planning an attempt to force Theodore Roosevelt as the next presidential nominee of the Republican party instead of either Taft or La Follette came to the ears of the La Follette managers here.

On the authority of John D. Fackler of Cleveland, a leader in the anti-Taft fight in Ohio, it is stated that former Governor Herrick of that state has declared that the La Follette movement has gone far enough in Ohio; that it must be stopped; and that efforts are to be made to name Roosevelt. Herrick is said to have made this declaration in pulling off one of his friends who was about to join in the progressive movement in Cleveland. Mr. Herrick is a financier whose alliance with men powerful in the financial world are well known.

The men who are leading the La Follette movement here are doing an astonishing amount of work in the effort to get Ohio delegates away from President Taft and declare that Taft will not get half of the Buckeye state delegates.

They believe the progressive work done in Ohio has turned the attention of powerful financial interests to the necessity of heading off La Follette and that the only man who can do this is Roosevelt.

The La Follette leaders, however, do not believe Roosevelt will let himself be dragged into the situation, but they say they are convinced that President Taft has been deserted by the great financial interests who are now casting about for some one else.

"His New Dress Shirt"

A beautiful little comedy in which a young wife tries to launder her husband's dress shirt. She is not very well experienced in the laundry business but it all ends pleasantly.

Whenever you buy Dress Goods in this store, you are in reality buying direct from the Mills. Our idea in acting as exclusive agents for the La Porte Woolen Mills of Indiana has a two-fold purpose that you should know about:

FIRST: By this arrangement, we invariably offer our customers—the very cream of this great Mill's entire output—and the patterns you find here cannot be duplicated in any other store in the city.

SECOND: By buying direct from the Mills, we save the middleman's profit. We buy and sell a finer, more varied and distinctive line of Dress Goods for less than any other store we know of—and our customers get the benefit.

To you—this means an unmistakable saving of money; NOW AND ALWAYS.

There has been filed with the city clerk and city attorney a petition objecting to the payment of the balance due Ritari Brothers for paving Third avenue, as allowed at the last council session by a 5 to 1 vote of the aldermen. The petition states:

"This is a demand for an appeal from the act of the council of the city of Brainerd, Minnesota, in the allowance of the final bill of Ritari Bros. for the paving of Third avenue between Kindred street and Ash avenue, Brainerd, Minnesota."

"We, the undersigned, who are residents and tax payers of the city of Brainerd, Minnesota, demand that the city attorney take an appeal to the district court of the county of Crow Wing, state of Minnesota, from the act of the city council of the city of Brainerd, in the allowance of the final claim of Ritari Bros., as contractors, for the paving of Third avenue between Kindred street and Ash avenue."

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING

C. A. Allbright Reports on the Progress Made by the Good Roads Committee

A PUBLIC MARKET DISCUSSED

Five Delegates to be Appointed by Mr. Allbright for the St. Cloud Meeting Dec. 8 and 9

The Commercial club had a meeting last evening which was well attended and the matters brought up for discussion and consideration showed that the club and its committees and members are taking an active interest in public affairs.

Attorney C. A. Allbright, president of the Crow Wing County Development association and a member of the good roads committee of the Commercial club, gave the following report of the work of his committee:

"The members of the good roads committee beg to report to the Commercial club that they have succeeded in establishing two proposed roads through Crow Wing county that would be built under the provisions of the Elwell law, one being part of the Moorhead-Duluth trunk line, practically following the Northern Pacific railway through the county from east to west and the other beginning at Brainerd and running to the north shore of Mille Lacs lake and connecting with the road through the southern part of Aitkin county and through Carlton county to Moose lake, connecting with the Minneapolis and Duluth automobile road."

"The commissioners of Crow Wing county have by resolution adopted these roads and engineers are preparing the necessary data such as tracings, blue prints, profiles and estimates of the cost per mile of the road and general topography of the country, necessary for the petition before presentation to the Highway Commission for their approval. The chairman of the good roads committee advises me that these roads will be in condition so that construction may begin next summer. He is very anxious to have the necessary data so that the petitions will be ready for presentation at the time of the St. Cloud meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association."

"We have maps and correspondence in connection with this matter that are available for inspection and would be glad to answer any questions that we can that the club may wish to ask."

"Another matter of importance is the election of five delegates to the St. Cloud meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association. Mr. Mackenzie, secretary of the association, notified the chairman of this committee that he would like to have the names of the delegates and advised us to have them selected at once. Your chairman would, therefore, ask that after the adjournment of the club, we get together as a development association and elect the five delegates and such alternates as we may deem necessary to attend the St. Cloud meeting."

"I do not think it will be necessary to make a formal call for the meeting as most members of the association are members also of the commercial club and your chairman is president of the association, and the president of the commercial club is secretary of the association."

Mr. Allbright also made reference to an article on Crow Wing county as being published in the Northwest-ern Agriculturist. Mr. Mackenzie having called his attention to it.

The club met as a development association and on motion it was ordered that Mr. Allbright should select the delegates and alternates of the county development association who were to attend the Northern Minnesota Development association meeting in St. Cloud on December 8 and 9.

At the last directors meeting of the club the plan was broached of having a city directory published annually and the matter was brought before the club members. Secretary Smith was instructed to write John H. Ley, of St. Cloud, the publisher of the biennial directory, about the matter.

The house and entertainment committee announced it would give an informal card party for members and their ladies on Wednesday evening, November 22. This is the first of a series of entertainments for the winter season.

P. B. Nettleton spoke on the subject of a public market for Brainerd. This is an institution which should be established by the city for it would provide a cash market for the farmers' produce of all kinds, including butter and eggs. It would give any person in the county a chance to offer for sale his products. Seattle, where Mr. Nettleton visits every year, established a public market five years ago. There was some opposition at first from grocers and commission men, but in the end, the fact that nothing but a cash business was done, that it brought much trade to the city and left the vendors free to make their cash purchases wherever they saw fit, caused a reversion in feeling and today every man and woman in Seattle is a firm believer in their public market. Minneapolis, Louisville, Kentucky; Dubuque Iowa, and other cities have these markets. It tends to reduce the high cost of living. It does away with the high profits of the middleman. It offers a housewife an opportunity to dispose of her cash her chickens, jelly, cakes, pies, bread, honey, potatoes, butter, eggs, vegetables, etc. It is an institution which is really needed in Brainerd. When moving pictures are shown of India and China at the local theatres the prominent features are always the market places. There is no more important institution in the East than the public market.

A committee, Messrs. P. B. Nettleton, Linnemann and Elder, was appointed to examine into the project.

Mr. Nettleton spoke further on the establishment by the city of a potato warehouse. A reasonable charge should be made for the storage of potatoes. The farmers should get together and this winter see which potatoes are the best to raise for market. They should club together and ship in carload lots. Now that the Northern Pacific railway is taking an interest in the matter, farmers, citizens and the Commercial club should get together and do their best in making Brainerd a widely known potato market. The matter was taken under consideration by the club.

CUYUNA RANGE IN MONOGRAPH

Volume LII, U. S. Geological Survey, "Geology of Lake Superior Region" Describes Range

WRITTEN BY CARL ZAPFFE

The Government Taking Cognizance of This Range Gives it an Authoritative Standing

There has been published by the United States Geological Survey of the Department of the Interior, "The Geology of the Lake Superior Region," of great interest to Brainerd and Cuyuna range miners, investors, geologists and others because it contains among the numerous monographs of this great ore region a description of the Cuyuna range written in authoritative manner by Carl Zapffe, the prominent geologist of this city.

The volume, No. LII, is ably edited by Charles Richard Van Hise, the president of the University of Wisconsin and by Charles Kenneth Leith, the Lake Superior geologist of the U. S. geological survey, and for many years the head of the geological department of the University of Wisconsin.

To Carl Zapffe, a graduate of the same university, fell the honor of writing the monograph on the Cuyuna range, furnishing its maps and other data, as well as giving much data and information about the Gunflint iron district.

The following letter shows the estimation in which Mr. Zapffe's work was held:

November 3, 1911.

Office of the Director.
Prof. Carl Zapffe,
Brainerd, Minn.

My dear Professor Zapffe:

I have taken pleasure in transmitting to you by mail, as joint author, a copy of Monograph LII.

I take this opportunity to thank you personally for your valued contribution to the book and for your participation in its collaboration.

Very respectfully,
GEO. OTIS SMITH,
Director."

The volume is a most exhaustive work and covers the entire history of Lake Superior mining, the Mesabi, Vermilion, Marquette, Menominee, Crystal Falls, Penokee-Gogebie, Cuyuna and other districts, with many maps and illustrations.

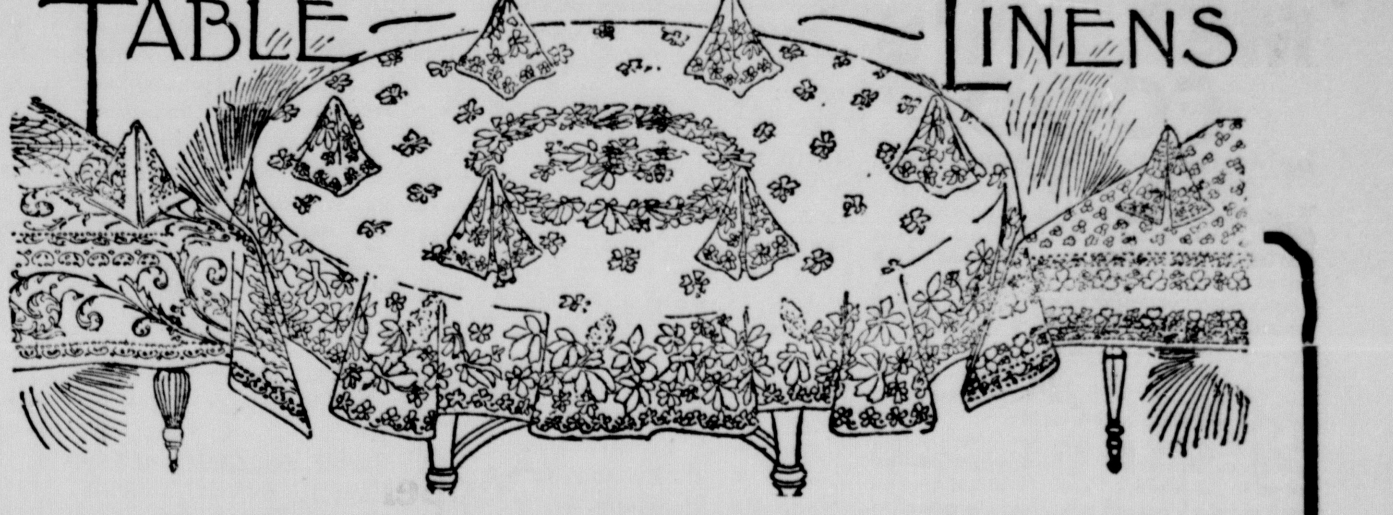

On his description of the Cuyuna range Mr. Zapffe based a thesis which won him a Bachelor's medal at the University of Minnesota. He won his Master's degree on his description of the Gunflint Lake iron region. So, in a measure, having made the Cuyuna his particular study, its development is one of particular pleasure and interest to Mr. Zapffe.

On page 44 is given in general form under the history of the Lake Superior mining the first short sketch of the Cuyuna iron range as follows: "The development of the Cuyuna, the newest of the Lake Superior iron districts, in the same geologic group as the Mesabi district, is unique in a way. The other iron ranges of the Lake Superior region were all discovered through more or less conspicuous surface indications of ore bodies. Outcrops of the ore or of iron-bearing rocks existed. There are no rock outcrops in the Cuyuna district, the drift mantle being 80 to 350 feet thick, and the first discovery of magnetic iron-bearing rocks in this region was made with the dip needle by Cuyler Adams, about 1895.

"The dip needle was the sole factor used in the subsequent tracing of the ore formations by Cuyler Adams and afterwards by others, preparatory to drilling, from the time of the first discovery of magnetic iron-bearing formations until 1907, when more or less indiscriminate drilling began.

The first drilling was done in 1903 at a point just south of Deerwood, Minn., by Cuyler Adams, and has continued in greatly increasing amount to the present time, some 2,000 drill holes and two shafts having been put down, resulting in the discovery of a number of ore deposits. (Here reference is made to the later detailed article compiled by Mr. Zapffe). The distribution of the ore bodies and the limits of the district are yet very imperfectly known.

Extension of magnetic surveys to the west and north have shown isolated magnetic belts at several places, some of them beyond the western boundary of Minnesota. The distribution of some of these belts is shown on the general map. Underground exploration of these belts has just begun. The next few years will see rapid exploration of the Cuyuna range and the country to the north and west.

For some time before the drilling began, geologists had suspected the existence of iron-bearing formation in the Cuyuna district. The general geologic map of Minnesota, published by the Minnesota Geological and Natural History Survey in 1901, showed this area as occupied by a southwestern extension of the slates and quartzites of the Mesabi district. In 1903 C. K. Leith published a sketch showing the hypothetical extension to the southwest of the iron-bearing formation of the Mesabi district through the since discovered Cuyuna district. A similar view of the geologic possibilities was held by W. W. Merriam, geologist for the United States Steel Corporation.

The Northern Pacific railway extends throughout the length of the Cuyuna district and affords easy access to the ores. It also runs near some of the magnetic belts west and northwest of the Cuyuna district. The Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste Marie Railway passes the district on the southeast and in 1910 completed a spur into the district. For both railways the lake port will be Superior."

ENGINEER F. D. STILLINGS DEAD

Died at 3 O'clock This Afternoon at
N. P. Hospital Following
Paralytic Stroke

Word was received from the N. P. sanitarium late this afternoon that Engineer Fred D. Stillings had just died as a result of the stroke of paralysis that he had some days ago. A further notice of his death will appear in tomorrow's issue.

Obituary

Mrs. Elizabeth Durham, who died Tuesday, was buried from the Presbyterian church today at 2:30 o'clock Rev. W. J. Lowrie conducting the services. The text was from James 4, 14, "What is Your Life?"

The deceased was born in Hemmenford, Canada, June 8, 1852. From there she moved to New York, then in 1880 to Crow Wing county. About 15 years ago her husband died leaving her with four small children. During the last six months she has been ill, at times suffering greatly. On Monday all pain left her. She spoke a few words to her daughter and fell asleep from which she did not waken.

She is survived by three sons, Wm. E. Durham, Charles B. Durham and Ralph Durham, also one daughter, Miss Susan Durham, who has faithfully attended her during all her sickness. Four sisters, one brother and a mother also mourn her loss. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING

C. A. Allbright Reports on the Progress Made by the Good Roads
Committee

A PUBLIC MARKET DISCUSSED

Five Delegates to be Appointed by
Mr. Allbright for the St. Cloud
Meeting Dec. 8 and 9

The Commercial club had a meeting last evening which was well attended and the matters brought up for discussion and consideration showed that the club and its committees and members are taking an active interest in public affairs.

Attorney C. A. Allbright, president of the Crow Wing County Development association and a member of the good roads committee of the Commercial club, gave the following report of the work of his committee:

"The members of the good roads committee beg to report to the Commercial club that they have succeeded in establishing two proposed roads through Crow Wing county that would be built under the provisions of the Elwell law, one being part of the Moorhead-Duluth trunk line, practically following the Northern Pacific railway through the county from east to west and the other beginning at Brainerd and running to the north shore of Mille Lacs lake and connecting with the road through the southern part of Aitkin county and through Carlton county to Moose lake, connecting with the Minneapolis and Duluth automobile road.

"The commissioners of Crow Wing county have by resolution adopted these roads and engineers are preparing the necessary data such as tracings, blue prints, profiles and estimates of the cost per mile of the road and general topography of the country, necessary for the petition before presentation to the Highway Commission for their approval. The chairman of the good roads committee advises me that these roads will be in condition so that construction may begin next summer. He is very anxious to have the necessary data so that the petitions will be ready for presentation at the time of the St. Cloud meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association.

"We have maps and correspondence in connection with this matter that are available for inspection and would be glad to answer any questions that we can that the club may wish to ask.

"Another matter of importance is the election of five delegates to the St. Cloud meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association. Mr. Mackenzie, secretary of the association, notified the chairman of this committee that he would like to have the names of the delegates and advised us to have them selected at once. Your chairman would, therefore, ask that after the adjournment of the club, we get together as a development association and elect the five delegates and such alternates as we may deem necessary to attend the St. Cloud meeting.

"I do not think it will be necessary to make a formal call for the meeting as most members of the association are members also of the commercial club and your chairman is president of the association, and the president of the commercial club is secretary of the association."

Mr. Allbright also made reference to an article on Crow Wing county as being published in the Northwest Agriculturalist. Mr. Mackenzie having called his attention to it.

The club met as a development association and on motion it was ordered that Mr. Allbright should select the delegates and alternates of the county development association who were to attend the Northern Minnesota Development association meeting in St. Cloud on December 8 and 9.

At the last directors meeting of the club the plan was broached of having a city directory published annually and the matter was brought before the club members. Secretary Smith was instructed to write John H. Ley, of St. Cloud, the publisher of the biennial directory, about the matter.

The house and entertainment committee announced it would give an informal card party for members and their ladies on Wednesday evening, November 22. This is the first of a series of entertainments for the winter season.

P. B. Nettleton spoke on the subject of a public market for Brainerd. This is an institution which should be established by the city for it would provide a cash market for the farmers' produce of all kinds, including butter and eggs. It would give any person in the county a chance to offer for sale his products. Seattle, where Mr. Nettleton visits every year, established a public market five years ago. There was some opposition at first from grocers and commission men, but in the end, the fact that nothing but a cash business was done, that it brought much trade to the city and left the vendors free to make their cash purchases wherever they saw fit, caused a reversion in feeling and today every man and woman in Seattle is a firm believer in their public market. Minneapolis, Louisville, Kentucky; Dubuque, Iowa, and other cities have these markets. It tends to reduce the high cost of living. It does away with the high profits of the middleman. It offers a housewife an opportunity to dispose of her cash her chickens, jelly, cakes, pies, bread, honey, potatoes, butter, eggs, vegetables, etc. It is an institution which is really needed in Brainerd. When moving pictures are shown of India and China at the local theatres the prominent features are always the market places. There is no more important institution in the East than the public market.

A committee, Messrs. P. B. Nettleton, Linnemann and Elder, was appointed to examine into the project.

Mr. Nettleton spoke further on the establishment by the city of a potato warehouse. A reasonable charge should be made for the storage of potatoes. The farmers should get together and this winter see which potatoes are the best to raise for market. They should club together and ship in carload lots. Now that the Northern Pacific railway is taking an interest in the matter, farmers, citizens and the Commercial club should get together and do their best in making Brainerd a widely known potato market. The matter was taken under consideration by the club.

CUYUNA RANGE IN MONOGRAPH

Volume LII, U. S. Geological Survey,
"Geology of Lake Superior Region" Describes Range

WRITTEN BY CARL ZAPFFE

The Government Taking Cognizance of This Range Gives it an Authoritative Standing

There has been published by the United States Geological Survey of the Department of the Interior, "The Geology of the Lake Superior Region," of great interest to Brainerd and Cuyuna range miners, investors, geologists and others because it contains among the numerous monographs of this great ore region a description of the Cuyuna range written in authoritative manner by Carl Zapffe, the prominent geologist of this city.

The volume, No. LII, is ably edited by Charles Richard Van Hise, the president of the University of Wisconsin and by Charles Kenneth Leith, the Lake Superior geologist of the U. S. geological survey, and for many years the head of the geological department of the University of Wisconsin.

To Carl Zapffe, a graduate of the same university, fell the honor of writing the monograph on the Cuyuna range, furnishing its maps and other data, as well as giving much data and information about the Gunflint iron district.

The following letter shows the estimation in which Mr. Zapffe's work was held:

November 3, 1911.

Office of the Director.
Prof. Carl Zapffe,
Brainerd, Minn.

My dear Professor Zapffe:
I have taken pleasure in transmitting to you by mail, as joint author, a copy of Monograph LII.

I take this opportunity to thank you personally for your valued contribution to the book and for your participation in its collaboration.

Very respectfully,
GEO. OTIS SMITH,
Director."

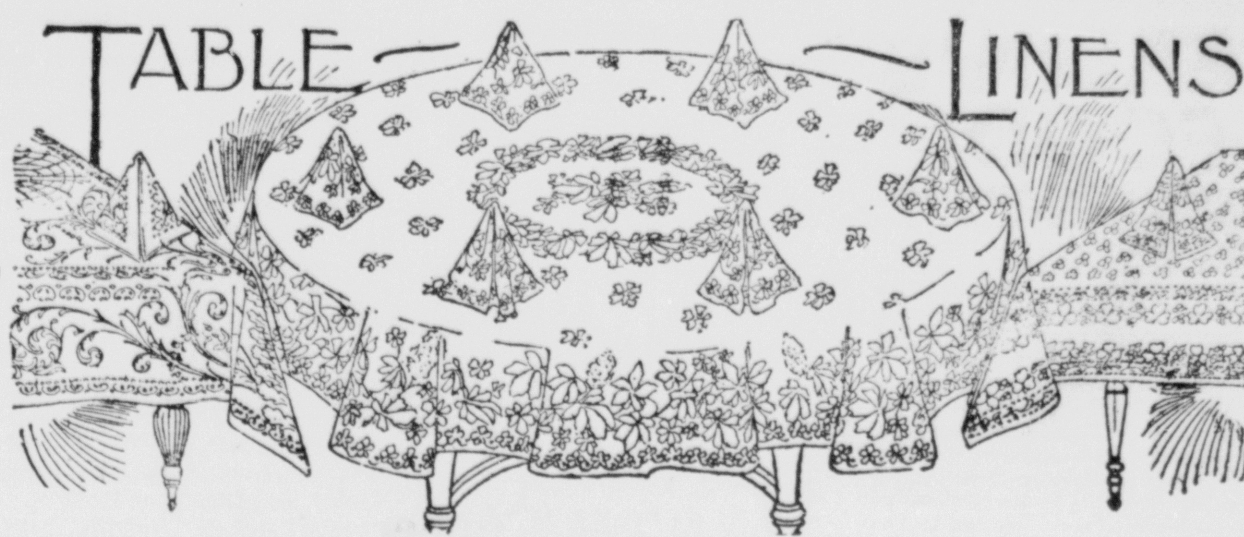

The volume is a most exhaustive work and covers the entire history of Lake Superior mining, the Mesabi, Vermilion, Marquette, Menominee, Crystal Falls, Penokee-Gogebic, Cuyuna and other districts, with many maps and illustrations.

On his description of the Cuyuna range Mr. Zapffe based a thesis which won him a Bachelor's medal at the University of Minnesota. He won his Master's degree on his description of the Gunflint Lake iron region. So, in a measure, having made the Cuyuna his particular study, its development is one of particular pleasure and interest to Mr. Zapffe.

On page 44 is given in general form under the history of the Lake Superior mining the first short sketch of the Cuyuna iron range as follows: "The development of the Cuyuna, the newest of the Lake Superior iron districts, in the same geologic group as the Mesabi district, is unique in a way. The other iron ranges of the Lake Superior region were all discovered through more or less conspicuous surface indications of ore bodies. Outcrops of the ore or of iron-bearing rocks existed. There are no rock outcrops in the Cuyuna district, the drift mantle being 80 to 350 feet thick, and the first discovery of magnetic iron-bearing rocks in this region was made with the dip needle by Cuyler Adams, about 1895.

"The dip needle was the sole factor used in the subsequent tracing of the ore formations by Cuyler Adams and afterwards by others, preparatory to drilling, from the time of the first discovery of magnetic iron-bearing formations until 1907, when more or less indiscriminate drilling began.

The first drilling was done in 1903 at a point just south of Deerwood, Minn., by Cuyler Adams, and has continued in greatly increasing amount to the present time, some 2,000 drill holes and two shafts having been put down, resulting in the discovery of a number of ore deposits. (Here reference is made to the later detailed article compiled by Mr. Zapffe). The distribution of the ore bodies and the limits of the district are yet very imperfectly known.

Extension of magnetic surveys to the west and north have shown isolated magnetic belts at several places, some of them beyond the western boundary of Minnesota. The distribution of some of these belts is shown on the general map. Underground exploration of these belts has just begun. The next few years will see rapid exploration of the Cuyuna range and the country to the north and west.

For some time before the drilling began, geologists had suspected the existence of iron-bearing formation in the Cuyuna district. The general geologic map of Minnesota, published by the Minnesota Geological and Natural History Survey in 1901, showed this area as occupied by a southwestern extension of the slates and quartzites of the Mesabi district. In 1903 C. K. Leith published a sketch showing the hypothetical extension to the southwest of the iron-bearing formation of the Mesabi district through the since discovered Cuyuna district. A similar view of the geologic possibilities was held by W. W. Merriam, geologist for the United States Steel Corporation.

The Northern Pacific railway extends throughout the length of the Cuyuna district and affords easy access to the ores. It also runs near some of the magnetic belts west and northwest of the Cuyuna district. The Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste Marie Railway passes the district on the southeast and in 1910 completed a spur into the district. For both railways the lake port will be Superior."

MELLIN'S FOOD

Babies are perfect specimens
"Our little son is a typical Mellin's Food baby. When he was born he weighed eight and one-half pounds. We began using Mellin's Food when he was ten days old. Now at eight months he is a perfect specimen of a baby, exceptionally strong, weighing over twenty-five pounds. We are indeed pleased with the results and just wanted to tell you how well we are satisfied with your splendid food."—Mrs. R. L. McPherson, Hartshorne, Okla.
"We have been feeding Mellin's Food to our baby for about two months and are very well satisfied with the results. Baby had been troubled with his stomach ever since he was born until we started to use Mellin's Food. We had tried all kinds of baby foods and milks, but none seemed to agree with him."

CURES BAD STOMACHS

No Indigestion, Gas, Sourness, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Five Minutes After Taking Diapiesin

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations or sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of our body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of dyspepsia, sick headache, biliousness, constipation, griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapiesin will cost fifty cents at any pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that fermentation and sour stomach is causing the misery of indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the stomach, nervousness or gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapiesin will regulate any out-of-order stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

Joyousness.

If ever there is need of joyousness and good cheer in our words and looks and demeanor it is when we feel least like it and when others about us are most likely to be helped by it.

FREE IF IT FAILS.

Your Money Back if You Are Not Satisfied With the Medicine We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxative or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate, and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons, and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness, nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate and dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Johnson's Pharmacy

Some Facts Proven to and Acknowledged by Many Brainerd Women Concerning the Peerless Steam Washer
Which is on Exhibition in McNamara's Furniture Store
All are Invited to inspect this Household Necessity
Dear Sir:
It gives me great pleasure to recommend your Peerless Steam Washer. As the demonstration which you made at my home has thoroughly convinced me of the extremely fine qualities which your washer has.
It washes colored clothes, as well as the white ones and cleans them to my entire satisfaction, without the least bit of rubbing. Among other things a large ragrug was washed also some painters overalls and childrens colored clothes. They all came out perfectly and looked very nice.
In view of the fact that the washer does such fine work I will order one of them.
Yours truly,
MRS. A. M. WALLACE.

OPEN THE HEART.

Abstract beliefs and opinions may have very little to do with the words and actions of the common days, but what the heart believes—the warm, loving human heart—colors the whole life. The mind may accept the teaching that all men are brothers and yet go its cold, selfish way, but when the heart believes it humanity finds its part in business, justice grows kind and generosity just.

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., So. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." MELLIN'S FOOD

"Our little son is a typical Mellin's Food baby. When he was born he weighed eight and one-half pounds. We began using Mellin's Food when he was ten days old. Now at eight months he is a perfect specimen of a boy, exceptionally strong, weighing over twenty-five pounds. We are indeed pleased with the results and just wanted to tell you how well we are satisfied with your splendid food."—Mrs. R. L. McPherson, Hartshorne, Okla.

"We have been feeding Mellin's Food to our baby for about two months and are very well satisfied with the results. Baby had been troubled with his stomach ever since he was born until we started to use Mellin's Food. We had tried all kinds of baby foods and milks, but none seemed to agree with him."

CURES BAD STOMACHS

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations or sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of our body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of dyspepsia, sick headache, biliousness, constipation, griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapiesin will cost fifty cents at any pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that fermentation and sour stomach is causing the misery of indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the stomach, nervousness or gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapiesin will regulate any out-of-order stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.
